

SCHEDULE & AGENDA

- 7:30 Arrival and Check-in
- 8:00 Welcome and Breakfast
- 8:30 Mini-Session: Putting Dreams into Action

We all have dreams for our future that take the backburner to “real” life. In this crowd-sourcing session, you’ll engage in facilitated conversation to help push aside roadblocks and take steps towards achieving your dream.

9:00 Breakout Sessions (choose one)

1. WINing: Engaging Women in your Organization, presented by Greystar
Join us to see how Greystar’s Women’s Inclusion Network (WIN) serves as a collaborative body for women and their allies with practical tips for action and implementation.
2. Using Conflict as a Catalyst, presented by Natalie Garramone of One Eighty
This highly interactive session focuses on attendees examining their own conflict management tendencies and increasing their comfort level with conflict.
3. Leading through Mindfulness, presented by Ellie Burke, Certified Life Coach
This educational, exploratory, and practical workshop will help you understand how to access, trust, and integrate your best, most authentic self in the way you lead. Understand how mindfulness can help you discern between leading from a place of who you think you should be versus who you actually are and why that matters.

10:00 Keynote: Regenerative Resilience™: Leading in a Future Plagued by Disruption, presented by: Elatia Abate

The velocity of change in our world has moved from incremental to exponential to instantaneous. New tech, which once took decades to integrate into society, is now taking only a matter of days or weeks to reach millions of people - and it’s not slowing down.

AI and machine learning are transforming society as we know it, including our understanding of business and how we work, and they’re only two of many disruptive technologies.

This moment is inviting us to step into leadership like never before and learn the tools to both navigate and shape the future in the face of accelerating change.

Regenerative Resilience™ is a dynamic talk designed to arm you to thrive in today’s unpredictable world. Learn to sculpt disruption into transformative power. This keynote shares tools made in, from, and for a world in constant flux. Move through this time, not with caution, but with confidence and vision.
